The 9 Laws of Attractive Body Language for Men

If only 7% of communication is made through words, then why do so many believe that they can pick up a girl with some magic line? The 9 laws of attractive body language are your magic line, they cover the other 93% of communication. If you have mastered these, you will be able to say anything, to any girl, and have her respond positively in nearly any situation.

In addition to the 9 laws of attractive body language, you will also learn:

- The secret to building attraction while dancing; using the 9 laws in the club
- How to take pictures of yourself that women will find attractive
- How you can remember the laws and make them habit

-How you can teach yourself the 9 laws subconsciously

-And much more.

The White Guys Travel Guide on Where to Go to Get Girls

Introduction

Whether for love, relationships or sex, I will show you the places in the world that you can find the prettiest girls who are most attracted to your look. Keep in mind that this does not mean that they will like you just because you are White; it means that you will have an advantage in these places because you are White.

In every part of the world we see racism, it is slight, and many people don't even realize they are doing it, but it is there. Sometimes, this racism benefits a certain race and other times it hurts it. You have to accept that this is there and use it to your advantage. Why waste your time in a place where people will treat you worse than everybody else when you can be in a place where people will treat you better?

Pipelining

Before I tell you the top 10 best places to go for girls, I want to share with you the best thing to do whenever you travel. It is something every person should do before visiting a country; it is called pipelining. This is when you start meeting girls on the internet before you arrive at a destination.

Before your trip you will be very excited, you will have trouble focusing on anything else during your spare time; use that motivation to start meeting girls before you even arrive there.

Start by making an account on a dating website that is popular in that country. In this book I will tell you what dating sites are popular in what countries, so don't worry, we will get to the specifics. Sign up for that website. Upload a picture of yourself when you are looking your best, but not more than a couple years old. Then, start messaging the girls you find attractive.

Do all you can to speak to them on webcam. This is important because to them you are just a photo until they speak to you face to face. You will become much more real when you webcam with them, and you will find that the same is true for how you will see them. You can actually start a relationship with a girl in another country while you are still at home. When you arrive in a country you can have them waiting for you at the airport. This will be the start to your adventure that, just like any adventure movie, will have a nice romance.

Day Game

This is another good way to find a girl while traveling. If you only look for girls at bars and clubs you will find more prostitutes and sluttier girls, but if you go find girls during the day you can find the good, innocent girls.

The first thing you need to do is pick a spot to talk with girls during the morning or afternoon; you can do this at the mall, on the street, at a university, or anywhere there are cute girls. All you have to do is stop the girl, say that you are looking for a particular place, then continue the conversation. You can get her number by saying something like “You know you’re cute, we should do something some time.” or “I just arrived here and don’t know many people, do you think you could show me around?” or “I am looking for X place. Could you help me?” You just need something simple because you are so exotic you won’t need to wow them with anything. Do this and you will have more pretty girls texting you than you know what to do with.

These lines work because you are an exotic person traveling to their country. They will be curious about you. Because of this they are also very believable, and many times they will be true. If you are lost, don’t ask the old guy who looks friendly, ask the cute girl.

If you want some help knowing which girls will respond well if you stop them, read my book that teaches this: Sexual Body Language: 120 Body Language Signals That She Likes You.

Top 10 List

#10 Thailand

Why They Like You – Naturally, Thai girls are attracted to height and that's something most white guys have on the locals. Thai people also value white skin.

Thailand is an up and coming country, but it is still third world. The fact that you are white and have money will be a big reason these women are attracted to you.

What the Girls are Like – Girls here know how to take care of a man. If you date one of these girls you may find them acting like your mother, in a good way; constantly cleaning up and wanting to cook for you. These girls act the way American girls did fifty years ago. So if you like being taken care of, these girls are for you. However, if you date one of these girls they will usually expect you to help support them financially.

Thai girls have beautiful faces and are usually very slender. Their skin tones range from white to a dark tan color. Thai people also have great hygiene.

This is a place where you must be weary of lady-boys; if you aren't sure look at shoulder width, waist, the size of her hands and feet, if she has an adam's apple, if she is particularly tall, and if she sounds like she is disguising her natural voice. You may think you will be able to spot them easily, but some are very convincing.

English Speaking – 27% of Thai people speak English. There will be many cases where you see a cute girl and won't be able to communicate with her, but there are many others that do speak English; so don't worry.

Cost – Thailand is a cheap country with the average salary being about $9,000.

Safety – Thailand is one of the safest countries in South East Asia; they have an excellent police force. Just make sure you aren't caught doing any drugs here. The only big thing you may need to watch for are scams, as with any third world country.

Tips to Get Girls – For pipelining, Thaifriendly.com is a good way to go. If you plan on finding girls at the clubs, you have to be very careful because this country has a lot of prostitutes. They are very common in nightclubs and bars.

It's best to stick to the day game model previously discussed while in Thailand.

#9 Peru

Why They Like You – Even though Peru is a popular destination in South America thanks to Machu Picchu, white guys are still exotic here. On top of that, in Peru lighter skin means status. Peruvians see light skin as beautiful, you will find girls complimenting you on the color of your skin frequently.

The biggest advantage goes to blonde hair, blue eyed guys. These things are so rarely seen in South America that girls will be mesmerized by their exotic looks. However, if you don't have blonde hair and blue eyes, girls are already so into your look that it won't matter much.

Girls in Peru will also like you because you will be seen as a wealthy foreigner, and in a place where there is little money, it is a very strong boost to be seen like that. Girls here will see you and dream of a better life.

Peruvians are a short race, so the more height you have the farther it will go. The average height for a male in Peru is 5'4". If you are above that height you will be seen as tall, and that will boost a girl's attraction for you. If you don't understand how important height is to attraction, read my book Understanding Sexual Attraction: What Makes A Woman Want You.

What the Girls are Like – Girls here are usually tan, with the upper classes being lighter skinned, and the lower classes being darker skinned. Peru has a lot of Native blood mixed into their population, so you will see many Metzo looking girls. Latinas are known for their curves, they have good sized asses and boobs. Peruvian girls are very family oriented and love to talk and enjoy life.

English Speaking – Somewhere around 15% of Peruvians speak English, so it is a good idea to work on Spanish before you get there. You will probably get a girl here no matter what, but the better your Spanish, the better you will do.

Cost – Peru is a very cheap country. The average salary in Peru is about $10,000, so things will be much cheaper. Most things cost about half as much as they do in Western Countries. You will want to stay in a bit nicer area, so you will be paying more than the locals, but it will still be relatively cheap. To rent a decent furnished apartment in a good area for a month will usually cost you about $400 a month. If you were to stay for 6 months the price would be a third of that.

Safety – Peru is a safe country, by South American standards. As long as you follow the simple things like: Don't go to a bad area of the city at night and don't wave money around in bad areas, you will be OK. Remember that in all poor countries you will have to be careful of scams and pickpockets. Keep your eyes open and don't trust too easily.

Tips to Get Girls – Pipelining is one of the best ways to get girls while traveling anywhere. A good website to do this in Peru is Badoo.

In terms of going to clubs at night to get girls, Peru is not a bad country to get a girl that way, but dance skills are important. However, if you can't dance, you will still do fine by going to bars and just talking to girls.

For finding girls during the day, stick with the day game method mentioned earlier.

#8 Romania

Why They Like You – They like you in Romania because you are a foreigner. All foreigners have a certain value to them because they come from a mysterious place or a place that the locals want to visit or live.

Money is the other reason you are attractive here. If you are not traveling as a backpacker you will be seen as a rich guy. Money is an attraction trigger; hence you will be more attractive.

What the Girls are Like – Tall, white, and slender; girls here are very beautiful. They have darker features in Romania, but you will still only find white girls here.

English Speaking – 31% of girls speak English, it's not a bad percentage so you shouldn't have any trouble finding English speaking girls in the cities. However, as always, knowing the local language will give you a large boost.

Cost – The average salary in Hungary is $13,000. This is quite a bit lower than most of the Western World. This is definitely part of Eastern Europe; money-wise and location-wise.

Safety – Romania is a relatively safe place as long as you stay in the right areas. Keep yourself out of trouble by not picking any fights here.

Tips to Get Girls – As always, pipeline before coming to Romania. Badoo is a good website to use.

Use the day game model discussed earlier to find quality girls during the day and at night just use the standard game you would use back home. However, here don't be afraid to buy a girl a drink and treat her to meals.

#7 Nigeria

Why They Like You – Nigeria is another place where lighter skin is valued. Lighter skin means more money. Since Nigeria is a poor country, money is a very important thing. This will be the driving force behind their attraction for you.

You will be exotic here, and all girls love an exotic guy. You have a lot of things in your favor in Nigeria.

What the Girls are Like – Darker skinned with fun, easy going personalities. These girls will have amazing booties and sometimes some very good racks. They may do all they can to try to get you to whisk them away to your home country.

English Speaking – 53% of Nigerians speak English. This means you will have no problem finding English speakers. Pretty much all the girls you talk to will speak English, as the ones who don't will be the older generation and the people way out in the sticks.

Cost – Nigeria is as third world as it gets so costs will be reflective. The average salary in Nigeria is about $1,700.

Safety – Nigeria is not a terribly dangerous country as far as Africa goes, but it is still in Africa; you want to stay in the safer areas at the right times. Also, HIV is very common here so make sure you protect yourself.

Tips to Get Them – The best idea is to start talking to girls during the day. Use the day game model from this book. However, Badoo is still a pretty popular website, so make sure to pipeline as well.

Night game should yield decent results as well, but because of the high HIV rate, I would suggest looking for a good girl, not the type you will find at a club.

#6 Ethiopia

Why They Like You – Ethiopia is a very poor country, and just getting food can be difficult here. Girls here will do anything they can to snag a foreign man. You look different. You aren't black. You will stick out here and girls will flock to you because you are their ticket to a better life.

What the Girls are Like – Girls here are black, but light skinned, especially for an African country. Most people say Ethiopia has the prettiest black women of any country in Africa. If you like black girls, Ethiopia is a very good choice.

English Speaking – Only 1% of Ethiopian girls speak English, but don't worry, you will hold so much value that communication past basic hand signals and body language won't be needed to land one of these girls.

Cost – Ethiopia is one of the cheapest places in the world. The average salary here is $1,000. That's about 1/50th of the average salary in the United States.

Safety – Ethiopia is relatively safe at the moment by African standards, but with all third world countries you should be very careful.

Tips to Get Girls – Pipelining will not work here because so few girls will have a computer. Night game is probably only good if you want to find prostitutes. That leaves only meeting girls during the day. All you need to do is walk up to the girl and say how pretty she is. Continue talking and try to set something up. Even if she barely understands you, she will be thrilled to do anything with you.

#5 Cambodia

Why They Like You – Cambodia is one of the most chaotic countries on the planet. Having recently committed a mass genocide against its own people, Cambodia is still picking up the pieces. It is a very poor country, and girls will see you and they will see stability, something many of them have never had in their lives. You will signify hope to many of them.

Couple those things with a girl's natural attraction to height, and their cultural attraction to white skin and you will have many women swooning over you.

What the Girls are Like – Cambodian, or Khmer, girls are short, thin, and a bit tan looking. They have very beautiful faces and I think they are the feistiest of all the girls in Asia.

English Speaking – Only 10% of Cambodians speak English so communication will most likely be done with hand signals and body language.

Cost – Cambodia is one of the cheapest places in South East Asia. The average salary here is only around $2,000. Girls will expect you to pay for things, but it is only because they have very little money, and jobs are hard to come by.

Safety – Cambodia can be a dangerous place. The law is pretty corrupt and they don't have a lot of power. Many people describe this place as chaotic. You are pretty much on your own here.

Tips to Get Girls – Your only option here to meet normal girls is to use the day game model I showed you earlier. Not many girls here will have constant access to computers so pipelining isn't the best choice, and most the clubs and bars will be filled with prostitutes.

#4 Russia

Why They Like You – Russia is a country that is typically quite racist towards all people that aren't white; so being white will just help you to be accepted here. The real reason the girls will like you is because Russia doesn't get a ton of tourists and is a poorer country. You will be an exotic man with money. You could also be a chance to get out of Russia.

What the Girls are Like – Russians have beautiful Slavic faces. They are tall, and thin with long, sexy legs. You will find blondes, brunettes, and redheads in this country.

Russian girls will seem cold at first, because they don't smile much. They have a more introverted culture, but they still love to drink and party.

English Speaking – The only reason Russia is not higher on this list, even with such beautiful women that love a western man, is because only 5% of Russians speak English. If you don't speak Russian it will be a lot more difficult here, and Russian is a very hard language to learn.

Cost – Russia isn't too expensive, but it isn't as cheap as many other countries on this list. At an average salary of $18,000 there is a lot of money in Russia. Unfortunately, there is very little middle class, so people will usually either be very rich or very poor.

Safety – Russia is not a safe country. You will have to be careful and try not to get into any trouble with the locals; Russian men are macho so this can be hard to avoid. Cons are also very common here since there are so many poor people. Use your head in this country.

Tips to Get Girls – If you go to Russia make sure to pipeline. Badoo is a very popular website in this country. Also, do the typical thing during the day. You can use the same day game model that you read about earlier. Night game is a great option in Russia because drinking is such a big part of their culture.

#3 Colombia

Why They Like You – Thanks to Colombia's dangerous reputation, white tourists are not very common; you will get exotic value just by being a white guy here. Colombians also value white skin because Colombia was one of the many countries conquered by Spain. In Colombia, the lighter skinned people will usually have more money and status, so girls will subconsciously see you the same way. If you are blonde hair, blue eyed, girls will find you more attractive here because it is such a rare quality.

Another reason girls will like you is because the average height in Colombia is much shorter than Western Countries. If you are tall, this won't matter as much, but with the average height of a man in Colombia being 5'7"; it will mean more attraction towards you. If you don't understand how important height is, read my book Understanding Sexual Attraction: What Makes A Woman Want You.

To top all this off, Colombia is a poor country, and many women want security in their lives. They will see you as the rich guy, regardless of how much money you have. Many Colombians also want out of Colombia so they will see you as a possible ticket. Be careful of these women, they are called "Pasaportes" which means passports.

What the Girls are Like – Colombian girls are renowned for their beauty, in fact, I would say they are the second most beautiful girls in all of Latin America. They are behind only Argentina, a country filled with beautiful women who are very hard to obtain.

Colombian girls are known for their long, dark hair. Their skins colors range from white to black, but the average Colombian girl has a natural tan look. Colombian girls' bodies are known for their curves. From their large breasts to their world famous asses, you can find Colombian girls with bodies that will blow your mind.

The average Colombian girl's personality is very outgoing. They love to have fun and enjoy even the smallest things in life. Colombian girls are very family oriented, so you may find yourself meeting a girl's entire family before ever even kiss her.

Make sure to set dates well; Colombian girls are very flakey, so if they don't show up for a date, don't get discouraged; it's a cultural thing.

A nice thing about Colombia is that certain areas have certain things; if you like white girls you can go to Medellin or Bogota; if you like black girls you can go to Cartagena; if you like the normal Colombian tan girl look, you will find them pretty much everywhere else in the country. You can basically have your choice when it comes to skin color.

English Speaking – About 11% of Colombian girls speak English, so I will tell you the single most important thing to going to Colombia and doing well is learning Spanish. Colombia has an outgoing culture so talking is something that is very important when going for a Colombian girl. However, it is still not too hard to get a Colombian girl with no Spanish language skills; you will just need to stick the big cities and tourist areas.

Cost – Colombia is a very cheap country. The average salary in Colombia is about $10,000, so things will be much cheaper. I would say most things cost about half as much as they do in Western Countries. Keep in mind that in Colombia you always want to stay in a nicer part of town to be safe, so prices will go up a little bit for that. To rent a decent furnished apartment in a good area for a month will usually cost you about $400 a month. If you were to stay for 6 months the price would be a third of that.

Safety – The thing that makes Colombia remain such a good destination for girls is that the fear of drug lords and hit men keep the hordes of tourists at bay. In fact, Colombia is safer than it has ever been. The government is doing a great job pushing the drug lords out of Colombia.

Colombia still can be a dangerous place if you don't know what you are doing, so keep some of these tips in mind if you go there.

Always stay in a nicer area of town. Colombia is really a safe country, if you are in the right area. So many of the bad things that happen in Colombia happen because people are in the wrong area at the wrong time. Don't let yourself trust too easily here either.

Tips to Get Girls – Pipelining, as mentioned earlier, is one of the best ways to get girls in Colombia. The two best websites to do this on are Badoo and Colombian Cupid.

In terms of going to clubs at night to get girls, it's not the best choice. The reason for this is because Colombians usually go to clubs and bars in big groups, so it makes it much harder to talk to any cute girls you see. If you are going to go this route, you should take some salsa lessons. If you can wow some girls with your salsa skills, it will lead to Colombian women loving you.

The best choice to find girls in Colombia is to use the day game model mentioned at the beginning of this book.

What Cities to Choose – If you want more exotic value, you can choose smaller cities, but I will go over some info on some of the bigger cities.

Bogota – The Capital and largest city in Colombia; it is a good place to go for a variety of things to do and a variety of girls. Girls come from all over Colombia to work there. The city is so big that you can get all different types of city life.

The weather isn't the greatest; it's usually about 50 to 60 degrees Fahrenheit (10-15° C) and is a city that gets a lot of rain. Bogota is also a more expensive city for Colombia, but still cheap by western standards.

Medellin – Known for its' light skinned stunners, Medellin boasts having the most beautiful women in all of Colombia. Its' women may be beautiful, but they know it. This city may be the hardest city to pull girls in Colombia .It is also the plastic surgery capital of Colombia, so if you like your girls one hundred percent real, another city is ideal. To escape how difficult some of the women can be, you can go to some of the near cities where the women are still known for their beauty, but they will not be as difficult.

The weather here is as perfect as you can find anywhere in the world. It doesn't rain too much and stays around a perfect 70 degrees Fahrenheit (21° C) year round; the perfect weather for a t-shirt.

Medellin is a rather expensive city by Colombian standards.

Cali – The salsa capital of Colombia. If you love salsa this is a great city for you. The women here are known for their asses. They have the big, round booties that so many guys love.

The weather here is a bit hot, but not too bad. It's usually around 75 degrees Fahrenheit (24° C), with little rainfall. The city is not very expensive.

Barranquilla – The coastal city of Colombia; where girls are known for being laid back, fun, and easy in bed. Costeña girls, as they are called, are more tan, but you can find a bit of variety because it is a port city. You will not find very many English speakers here so it's a good idea to know Spanish.

The weather here is usually hot and it will only rain here during rainy season. This city is not expensive.

Santa Marta – Like Barranquilla, this is another costal city known for its' Costeñas. This city is a good choice if you like to see the beauty of nature. The world famous Parque Tayrona is here and is one of the most beautiful places in the world. Add the fact that a beautiful mountain range is next to the city, and you're in a great área to see some of the beauty nature has to offer.

Cartagena – A place of known for its culture. Cartagena also has those Costeña girls; however, here you will find more a more African look. If that is what you are searching for than this is the city for you. On the other hand, this is a huge tourist spot filled with hookers and sex tourists, if that is not what you are interested in, another city might be best.

Other cities – You can travel to almost any city in Colombia and have a good time. Go to the smaller cities to keep that exotic value high, just make sure they are in a safe area.

#2 Dominican Republic

Why They Like You – In the Dominican Republic white skin is looked at as beautiful, all the girls want lighter skin, and your skin will be seen as very attractive here.

You will be seen as rich by people here in this poor country, and also as a way to get out of the Dominican Republic. Watch out for girls who are with you just for these things.

What the Girls are Like – Very curvy with a heavy African influence. However, you will still find light skinned Dominican girls here. You will see some of the best asses you have ever seen in your life while visiting this country.

Dominican girls love to party and have a good time. They live life to the fullest. They are very extraverted and love being around people, they also have very strong family values.

The Dominican Republic has a very sexual culture, so you may find yourself in bed with a fiery Dominicana very quickly.

English Speaking – 0.2% of Dominicans speak English, so good luck finding any English speakers. Learning a bit of Spanish here is a necessity if you want to communicate. You may be able to get by with a translator, but that is only because you will start out with such high value to these girls.

Cost – The Dominican Republic is a very cheap country unless you get caught in the tourist trap. It is so close to the United States that there are many expensive resorts and restaurants in certain parts. Stay away from those parts and it is a very cheap country. The average salary here is about $10,000.

Safety – The Dominican Republic is not too dangerous, but it is not safe either. You need to stay smart here. Don't let yourself be in the wrong area of town late at night, and don't put yourself in any dangerous situations. Cons are also pretty common in this place.

Tips to Get Girls – For pipelining Badoo is the way to go. Day game is where you should focus most of your girl finding efforts, although it is easier to get girls in bars than many countries on this list.

What Cities to Choose – As always, the smaller the city you choose, the more exotic value you will have as a foreigner (not including tourist towns).

Santo Domingo – The capital and largest city in the Dominican Republic, you will find the most variety here. You will find many Gringo-hunters or, girls that chase after only white guys.

Santiago – This city is known for having very pretty women, it is smaller than Santo Domingo but still a pretty big city.

#1 The Philippines

And the number one place for a white guy to get an attractive girl is the Philippines.

Why They Like You – You may have noticed that the top 3 were places that were conquered by the Spanish. That is the main reason white guys do so well in these places. When Spain conquered these places, white men were put in positions of power and when they had children they ended up being light skinned like their Spanish ancestors. Money and status became associated with light skin and that is what it is like in the Philippines.

Five hundred years ago Spain conquered the Philippines and occupied them for four hundred years. Then, over a hundred years ago the United States did the same thing. They occupied the Philippines and brought over Western values. Today, the Philippines are the most Americanized country in Asia. Their love of American sports, American music, and American films has given them a curiosity about Americans. All these things will contribute towards the attraction that Philippina women will feel towards a white guy. Couple that with how they see light skin and a long nose as beautiful, and their natural attraction towards the average white guy will be very high.

The Philippines is also one of the shortest countries in the world, so the natural attraction that women feel for men with height will be felt very easily by a Philippina.

The last reason they like you, and most obvious, is money. The Philippines is a third world country where many people are struggling just to get their next meal. If a girl sees a white guy she will know he has money and it will greatly increase the attraction she will feel.

What the Girls are Like – Philippina girls are short and very thin. They usually don't have very big breasts, but at times they have very nice asses. Their skin tones range from a dark tan look to almost as white as you. They usually have beautiful long black hair and big dark brown (sometimes black) eyes.

Philippine women have very sweet personalities, but they are many times the bread winners in Philippine society, so they are not quite as feminine as in other Asian countries. This is a Catholic country so women are generally conservative here, but you will find many who aren't as well. The Philippine people are very family oriented, so you may end up meeting the family very quickly.

This is a place where you must be weary of lady-boys; if you aren't sure look at shoulder width, waist, the size of her hands and feet, if she has an adam's apple, if she is particularly tall, and if she sounds like she is disguising her natural voice. You may think you will be able to spot them easily, but some are very convincing.

English Speaking – Around 80% of the people in the Philippines speak English. That alone makes it one of the best destinations to find foreign women, just because the language barrier is a hard thing to overcome. You will not find many people who can't speak English, but remember it is their second language so you may have to speak slower and with less slang.

Cost – The Philippines are a very cheap country. The average salary in the Philippines is about $4,000, so things will be much cheaper. You will pay about a third the price for most things as long as you are outside of a tourist area.

Safety – The Philippines is a very safe country, although Manila can be a bit rough and there is some terrorist activity in the south. You will need to be wary of cons and pickpockets, but as far as your physical well-being, it is a safe place.

Tips to Get Girls – Pipelining is one of the best ways to meet girls in the Philippines. DateinAsia and PhillipineCupid are two websites that you can use.

For day game, just stick to the day game model from this book and you will do very well. Many Philippine girls will get very nervous if you approach them in public so it might be a good idea to just leave your number with them on a piece of paper. Once they gather themselves and get over their nerves, you will surely be getting a text message.

What Cities to Choose – If you want more exotic value, you can choose smaller cities, but I will go over some info on some of the bigger cities.

Manila – Manila is the Capital and largest city in the Philippines. It is the most expensive city as well. As with any city this size, the traffic can get very bad and there is a lot of crime.

The girls here are the most liberal of all the Philippines. They dress more like Western places and partying and one night stands is more part of the culture here. Girls from Manila have a slightly different look and a bit lighter skin.

Cebu – Cebu is a big tourist city with many beaches close by. As it is the second largest city in the Philippines, girls here are a mix of conservative and liberal. Girls here may have more Spanish ancestry than other areas.

Davao – The third largest city in the Philippines is in the terrorist hotspot of Mindanao, but don't let that scare you off, Davao is actually a very safe city. Girls here are conservative and most will be regular church goers.

Boracay – This island will have more tourists per capita than any other part of the Philippines. It has beautiful beaches and resorts, but a lot of prostitutes will come here to make money off of all the sex tourists, so it's harder to find normal girls.

Angeles City – The sex tourist capital of the Philippines. I would not suggest this place if you want to find a regular girl.

Cagayan de Oro – Another city in Mindanao, it is known for its white water rafting. Girl here are more conservative.

Zamboanga – A large city in an area filled with terrorist activity, Zamboanga is probably the most dangerous of the larger cities for a white guy. However, it might have the biggest payoff as it doesn't get many white tourists.

Summary

You may have noticed that a lot of these places are poorer countries, and you may say to yourself that you don't want a girl who is after money. Money itself is not necessarily the reason they want you, they want you because money is an attraction trigger they cannot help. To understand why women can't help but be attracted to certain things read the book Understanding Sexual Attraction: What makes a Woman Want You. The reason guys with money do well in these places is not just because women want a better life, but because the money attraction trigger will be stronger in these places.

Be careful when you travel to these places; you will have girls legitimately falling for you. Don't think that because you are in a country where money has more importance that they won't fall for you just the same.

You will find girls in these places to be beautiful, complex, and interesting individuals. You may think some are pretty, have an animal attraction towards others, or genuinely fall in love with a girl. There are other factors involved in choosing a travel destination, but if you are a single guy, then girls should be one of the most important.
